

Captain Slate's Scuba Adventures - Cancellation Policy: Individual Divers

- A twenty-four hour notice is required for a full refund of charter fees. Cancellations made in less than twenty-four hours will be subject to a cancellation fee of 1/2 of the total price of that trip.
- "No Shows" will be charged the full amount of the charter fee. There are no refunds.
- Charters that are cancelled by Captain Slate's Atlantis Dive Center due to inclement weather and/or sea conditions, or conditions beyond our control will be refunded in full. Trips are not cancelled due to rain. The decision to cancel a trip due to bad weather usually cannot be made until departure time.
- Only those present at scheduled departure time will receive refunds.
- No partial refunds will be made for unused dives.
- No refunds will be made for sea sickness.

Captain Slate's Scuba Adventures - Cancellation Policy: Dive Groups

- A minimum of two week notice is required for any group cancellations, to allow us time to book other clients. Cancellations less than 14 days prior to your Florida Keys diving reservation will be charged a cancellation fee of 1/2 of the total price. Cancellations less than 7 days prior to reservations will be charged in full.
- "No Shows" will be charged the full amount of the charter fee. There are no refunds.
- Charters that are cancelled by Captain Slate's Atlantis Dive Center due to inclement weather and/or sea conditions, or conditions beyond our control will be refunded in full. Trips are not cancelled due to rain. The decision to cancel a trip due to bad weather usually cannot be made until departure time.
- Only those present at scheduled departure time will receive refunds.
- No partial refunds will be made for unused dives.
- No refunds will be made for sea sickness.